HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

LEWIS MERIWETHER WALKER, JR.

Born in Danville, Virginia, and educated at the University of Virginia, where he received his B.S. and M.S. degrees in economics, Mr. Walker currently resides in Petersburg, Virginia, with his wife, Ellen. His involvement in numerous business activities in the Petersburg area includes the presidencies of Builders Supply Company of Petersburg, Inc., and Roslyn Farm Corporation. He has long been associated with higher education in Virginia, notably as a member of the University of Virginia Board of Visitors (1963-70) and as a member, and subsequently chairman, of that body's Mary Washington College Committee (1964-70). Upon the separation of Mary Washington College from the University of Virginia in 1972, Mr. Walker was appointed to the newly-created Mary Washington College Board of Visitors and was elected its first rector, a position which he held with great distinction until 1978. He is currently a member of the Mary Washington College Foundation. The hallmarks of his service to the College during this crucial period in its history have been vision, sound judgment, and generosity — all focused toward the paramount goal of enhancing the quality of the College within the tradition of liberal arts education.

KATHERINE EDMONDSON HOPPER

A native of Halifax County, Virginia, Mrs. Hopper received her B.S. degree from Mary Washington College and her M.A. degree from George Washington University and, in addition, pursued advanced studies at The College of William and Mary and the University of Virginia. She enjoyed a distinguished career in the field of public education, both with the Fairfax County School System as a teacher, counselor, and Director of Pupil Personnel Services, and with the State Department of Education as Director of the Governor's School for the Gifted at Mary Washington College for four years (1974-77). Her association with Mary Washington College has been long and varied, including active membership in the Mary Washington College Foundation and the Alumni Association, and service as chairman of the College's 75th Anniversary Commemoration Committee. As a member of the Board of Visitors for ten years beginning in 1972, she was elected to two terms as rector of the Board (1978-82). Throughout her years of energetic and generous involvement with the College, her endeavors have been characterized, not only by the extreme competence which derives from a keen understanding of the true purpose of higher education, but also by a singular devotion to the institution which proceeds from a deep and enduring love for her alma mater.
